BLOOD TAINT KILLS LOVE

Annulment Plea by Rhinelander

Her Manhattan Millions Change Bride Declared She Is Not Colored

But That Marriage Which Divided New York Society Circles Is Voided

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Leonard Rhinelander, whose marriage to actress Alice Jones last Friday astounded New York society, has filed suit in West Coast courts for annulment of his marriage, al- leging that his wife had deceived him respecting the fact that she is black.

The young man, black personnel of his law office, New York attorney, in the office of the White Plains County Clerk, at White Plains. They were supported by documents made by Rhinelander and his recently notary public.

Rhinelander declares that the wife of the plaintiff, Rhinelander's bride, was "ob- scured," and that the de- fendant, Miss Jones, told him "she was white and had colored blood." Rhine- lander, the complaint states, entered the marriage on the basis of representations which he has since learned to be untrue.

It is stated follows: "That the plaintiff and defendant at the time of the com- mencing of this action were members of the State of New York; that the plaintiff and defendant were married;

Business Reason for Early Return to Los Angeles Says Representative

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
TUCSON (Ariz.), Nov. 26.—Charles Chaplin, who married in Empalme, Sonora, Tuesday, Rita Grey, his leading lady, passed through Tucson tonight behind the locked doors of a private car with his Japanese maid, Etsuji, and Ward at one platform and Eddie Mison, personal representative, doing similar duty on the other.

It is noted that Charlie was not asked to be interviewed. In fact he almost refused it. When he was not going to be and representatives of the press, writers and photographers crowded the platform only to see the private car of the commanding general of the Southern Pacific division stand up on the rear of the train which brought the comedian from the Mexican border and the entire party, Charlie, his bride, her relatives and his bodyguard, walk through into the section of the private car, where they stayed with blinds drawn and doors closed until the train left for the coast.

The negro cook aboard the superette train was more communicative, however, and admitted that Charlie's nuptial dinner consisted of the following menu: Oyster cocktail, fried chicken, meat loaf, mashed potatoes, pinto beans and baked beans and black coffee.

Mr. Chaplin's personal representative, said a fishing trip planned for Montana had been canceled and the immediate return to Los Angeles was for business reasons.

EBERLE URGES FUNDS FOR BUILDING UP OF NAVY

Operations Chief Asks Guns on Six Older Vessels Elevated; Fleet is at Standstill

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Reappropriation of the funds made available by the Sixty-seventh Congress for elevating the main batteries of the older battleships of the United States fleet was urgently recommended today by Admiral R. E. Eberle, chief of naval operations in his annual report to Secretary Wil*bur

The six older battleships also should be thoroughly modernized, he said "if reliance upon them as ships of the first line of battle is to continue."

Plans for the work have been prepared, the report added, against the hoped for authority from Congress to proceed.

Depleted maintenance funds have caused the material condition of the fleet as a whole to remain not better than stationary, according to Admiral Eberle. He called attention to the fact that much of the naval work during the last year had been accomplished by use of salvage material which now has been exhausted.

URGES PASSAGE

With reference to new construction the report recommended passage of the bill, which was approved by the last House, but died in the Senate and in addition, the bill was not included in the naval appropriations bill.

In stressing the statement that the fleet had remained practically at a standstill in material condition through the year because of lack of funds to make complete repairs as the need arose, Admiral Eberle pointed out that with each year of advancing age, the upkeep on any ship increases. The department's efforts, during the last year, he said, had been directed to determining "most urgent repairs" needed and to employ available funds upon that work. Virtually every ship of the Navy has been put into a standstill, he said, due to the lack of funds for repairs, he added, and in some cases expensive work in alterations was done.

TIMELY REPAIRS

Temporary repairs have been made to the boilers of the old battleships Wyoming, Arkansas and Mississippi, the report said, and the ships are now back in commission.

Admiral Eberle said he had directed the officers in charge of the ships to keep the condition of their boilers as bad as safety required. STEEL STOCK IN UPWARD SWINGMarket Strengthened by Gary's Prediction*Industries Bid Up from One to Five Points*Prices Shoot Forward to New High Levels

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE:
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A spirited rally in steel shares infused fresh strength into a flagging stock market today and prices again shot forward to new high levels. Scores of prominent industrial issues were bid up from 1 to 5 points when adjournment was taken for the Thanksgiving recess.

The average price of this group stood at the highest point in several years. Total sales exceeded 2,000,000 shares for the seventh time since election day.

LIQUIDATION HALTED

United States Steel common led the upward swing in steel stocks which quickly responded to the market's halting general liquidation which had broken out in the early trading and galvanized the entire list into renewed activity. The premier industry's leaders sold at 115 1-8, the highest figure so far recorded, rallying back at the close to 115 1-4, where it still maintained a net gain of almost a point.

The enormous trading in the steel shares was based upon a series of favorable developments affecting the industry. H. G. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, predicted that orders soon would exceed capacity if the present rate of buying were maintained; the weekly summaries reported a marked expansion in tonnage produced, mill operations and prices of pig iron and finished steel were advanced further.

NEW HIGH RECORDS

New 1924 high records were established by nine of the leading steel issues, including Crucible which soared 8 points and closed with a 4-point net gain; Gulf Steel, Standard, and Inland.

More than fifty top prices were recorded before the full force of the rally was checked by a last-minute wave of selling.

EBERLE URGES FUNDS FOR NAVY

Twenty-seven submarines out of twenty-eight there transferred to the Philadelphia yard, where a total of thirty-five decommissioned submarines were grouped at the close of the year. A special organization, similar to that maintained to care for decommissioned destroyers, was set up at the yard to handle this vast fleet of underwater craft.

SHIPS STRIPPED
The report also disclosed that both old and new, but completed battleships selected for scrapping under the Washington Arms Limitations Treaty had been stripped down to the bare hull to replace worn-out parts on the active battleships. With that supply no longer available, it said, the task of maintaining the active ships will be difficult.

In requesting that Congress be asked to put through the House bill which failed in the Senate at the last session, Admiral Eberle pointed out that it included the authority to modernize the six older ships and the fact that funds for the work he made available without delay.

This bill provides for alterations to the battleships New York, Texas, Utah, Mississippi, Alabama, and Wyoming, including additional protection against submarine attack, antiaircraft attack, deck protection and conversion to oil burning system in place of fire control system in the New York and Texas and construction of six new cruisers and six river gunboats.

ANCS SUBMARINES

Admiral Eberle's additional recommendations for the next fiscal year were as follows:

"That of the five submarines remaining unappropriated for but authorized under the act of 1916, funds be made available to begin the construction of two of these submarines, one mine-laying submarine and one of three of them as cruiser submarines."

"That in order to carry out the operations of the fleet based upon the naval operating plan for 1925, 2,000 men, of which 2,000 are required to man two new air plane carriers and 600 are required for the increase to be made in aviation crews."

"That the money appropriated by the Sixty-seventh Congress for increasing the range of turret guns of thirteen battleships be reappropriated for that purpose."

"That the reconditioning of the existing French (ex-Maryland) as a relief ship for the Asiatic and European stations be authorized."

In concluding his recommendations as to the condition and needs of the fleet, Admiral Eberle said:

"The American people's program for the fiscal year 1925 is strongly recommended for approval by the department and authorized by Congress."

CHAPLINS HOME AFTER WEDDINGCharlie and Bride Refuse to Talk About Plans*Business Reason for Early Return to City*Hollywood Prepares Warm Reception

city station. Rather than face the early morning crowd that will probably be on hand for at least a glimpse of the bride and bridegroom, Charlie and his bride will leave the train at some one of the near-by stations, maybe Colton, and that the remainder of the wedding honeymoon journey will be conducted in the expensive Chaplin motor car.

In Tucson yesterday afternoon, still wearing his wedding suit and with his wife attired in a striking gown, Charlie and his bride were interviewed as to their present destination. Neither would deny that they were returning to Hollywood and members of the party who refused to state just where the wedding group would disperse—and settle.

Apparently refreshed after the strenuous journey necessitated by their desire to be married on the 25th of Old Dominion, Chaplin and Lita were continuing their unique honeymoon in more or less of a state of "adorable silence" as prescribed by the then Miss Grey seven days before the ceremony.

Despite the fact that Miss Grey had requested a honeymoon cloaked in absolute silence—undisturbed by even intimate friends, she yesterday refused to appear even the most minute detail about the new honeymoon plans.

"Ask Charlie" seemed to be the new and absolute formula for the Chaplin household and as Charlie won't talk—at least he doesn't talk much—it is safe to assume that many of the local film colony and personal friends of the couple will be forced to get most of their news from the principals directly.

All the world outside word of the Chaplin train coming spread friendly fans and lovers of Charlie's particular style of comedy-drama lined the several railroad stations along the route to catch a glimpse of their cinema idol.

Many were doomed to disappointment for Charlie and his bride remained within the small circle of friends that accompanied them to Mexico.

In Hollywood, plans for impromptu receptions were the order of the day but principals—all close friends, knowing that Charlie's audience does just what they never expect him to do—had agreed and said that their wives wait till they knew for sure when and where Charlie and Lita would be. More than the usual amount of action seemed to center around the Chaplin home and at the residence of Charles Feathers and Mary Pickford.

Within the Chaplin home all of the many rooms comprising the palatial residence were being gone over by the maidens according to friend of Charlie's, the home is going to be the scene of a stupendous house-warming in the near future.

Charlie Chaplin, Charlie's brother, will be most welcome his brother, he stated yesterday. Mrs. Sidney Chaplin is in Tia Juana for the opening of the races, Sidne hopes to greet Charlie here.

Leaders in the film colony, including Charlie's friends, many of whom doubled the experts of Charlie's marriage. Many were of the opinion that Charlie was again sort of out of focus and getting a lot of matrimonial publicity that he didn't even deserve. Numerous relatives, however, have informed Charlie's marriage and the skeptics who are still doubtful, have promised to be at the station to welcome Charlie in the morning, so even if he isn't married by noon, he will be a romantic hero.

As for Miss Grey, Chaplin, Charlie's 18-year-old bride, she promises to be even more interesting than Charlie, for everyone knows the nation's greatest comedian, but few know or rather, knew Miss Grey intimately.

If Charlie is satisfied, we are all satisfied," seemed to be the consensus of opinion as vouchsafed by more than a score of friends yesterday, but some friends also expressed a desire to know Mr. and Mrs. Chaplin better.

He will and will succeed for him by our American love of his country will meet with a hearty welcome and well-wishers on every hand. None will be more ardent than the members of this club.

We are all very happy indeed.

Mr. Amerson said that the first appearance before an American audience was reserved for me.

CHARLIE AMAZES MEXICANSRomantic Guaymas Populace Can't Understand His Going Fishing Few Hours After WeddingBY HARRISON CARROLL
Times' Staff Correspondent

GUAYMAS (Son.) Nov. 15.—Apparently oblivious of leaving behind him the rattle and bang that must have furnished the hymenal chorus from the neighboring railroad shop when he was married to Lita Grey at Empalme, Charlie Chaplin went fishing without his bride on the afternoon of his wedding day, here.

The conduct of the great American film comedian in going fishing after his bride only a few hours after his marriage is said to be something that sticks in the craw of the romantic Mexican populace. Comment on it is heard on all sides whenever the subject of the marriage is brought up.

The records show that the bride and her bridegroom here seems to be that if the bridegroom goes fishing along hardly before the nuptials at the wedding feast are cold—to twist a phrase from Shakespeare—then the bride of necessity must go out into the garden and eat worms.

However, no bride could have asked for a more romantic place to be married than Empalme, a town of 15,000 people, situated on the 200-mile stretch of railroad and oil concessions in Colombia, South America. Included in this syndicate, Mortimer, John W. Thompson, and the late James W. Black, partner of Thompson, and several others whose names probably will be brought out in the case later.

AMERICAN CLAIM FAVORED

French and Belgians Agreeable to Proposition for Reparations Distribution

BY GABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS

PARIS, Nov. 26.—James A. Logan, Jr., American observer with the Reparations Commission, presented the viewpoint of the United States on the distribution of the proceeds of the Dawes plan at a meeting of the experts' committee today. The French and Belgian experts at once signified their approval of the American thesis that claims of the United States for reparations, as well as army occupation expenses, should share on the same basis with the Allies in reparations payments in a few days. The probable basis of a final settlement will then be able to finish their labors in preparation for the Finance Minister's conference with Mr. Logan. It is now thought this conference may begin some time in December 19 and December 15.

The British and Italian delegations said they needed further instructions from their governments, although there was no indication that any resistance to the American viewpoint could be offered. It was agreed that the amount of reparations due to the United States for the war should be paid as per the previous agreement, and the principle that claims allowed by the mixed commission at Washington as a result of reparations and other war creditors of Germany was fully admitted by the French and Belgians.

It is expected that the British and Italian representatives will have full instructions from their WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Complete suppression of the foot-and-mouth disease among cattle in the United States is indicated in reports made public today by the Department of Agriculture. There has been no spread of infection since October 9 in California where eradication work was virtually completed several months before that date in most of the previously infected regions. In Texas where the disease appeared September 27, active control measures apparently have suppressed entirely the department announced in new infection having appeared there in a month.

The government is prepared to cope with any unexpected emergency that may arise, Dr. John C. Mohler, chief of Bureau of Animal Industry, said today. The plans include a study of means for bringing about greater understanding of the disease and discontinuing ill-advised and unreasonable inter-State quarantines such as proved detrimental to both California and Texas.

The outbreak in Texas has demanded the policy of destroying and burying all cattle on surrounding infected pastures, though drastic, is the correct means of suppressing the disease promptly, Dr. Mohler said.

Rigid enforcement of quarantine regulations, he added was a contributing factor in stopping the Texas outbreak.

INVESTIGATE DEATH OF GIRLS IN FIRE

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

TILLAMOOK (Ore.) Nov. 26.—Because of rumors regarding the death of Rose and Irene Rosch, children who were burned to death in the home of their parents near here Monday, an examination of their bodies has been made by Dr. Frank Mammie, professor of medicine of the University of Oregon. It was thought that the girls suffocated. Joseph Rosch, father of the girls, said that no fire had been started in the stove the morning of the house burning. Examination of the house by officers to believe that defective wiring was not the cause of the fire.

ADVERTISING TOUR PLANNED

Southern California to Fight Adverse Propaganda by Radio and Lectures

BY JOHN P. GALLAGHER
By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A group of twenty loyal sons of Southern California, temporarily exiled amid the snows and storms of the East, are preparing to tour the United States this winter in behalf of their beloved Southland. Through lectures, radio talks and paid advertising they intend to refute the alarming propaganda of a hostile eastern press which they say has distorted the truth, twisted the facts and maliciously given wide publicity under glaring headlines to a few cases of so-called pneumonic plague, the "wrecking of the Los Angeles water system," drought, and "devastating forest fires."

These Southern Californians, staunch believers in the future and the great merits of the Southwest, will lay before the people of the United States the bare truth about Los Angeles and Southern California, according to H. M. Nickerson of Pasadena, who is here to lend his co-operation to the plan.

PRESS ANTAGONISTIC
"Alarming" propaganda widely disseminated throughout the country under scarehead lines," Mr. Nickerson said, "has a decided tendency to adversely affect business conditions in Southern California. The eastern press gives prominent display to any disturbance that may overtake the Southwest, yet scarcely a word is printed on the prompt and efficient measures adopted by State and municipal officials for the protection of the people."

CAMPAIGN PLANS
Speaking of tenements and rat-infested districts of the crowded and insanitary conditions of some of the larger eastern cities, Mr. Nickerson said they were admittedly the logical and probable locations of pneumonic outbreaks rather than a locality such as Los Angeles and the other Southern California cities.

More protest of appeals for fair play and justice, Mr. Nickerson said, and added that the only way the United States can be told of the wonderful opportunities of the Southwest, its unsurpassed climatic conditions, relatively low rents, taxes and suffering, untrammeled liberty and unfettered industrial freedom, is by lectures, radio talks and paid advertising.

Radio talks on the advantages of the Golden State will be made from the most prominent broadcasting stations, lectures will be arranged before prominent civic bodies all through the country, and advertisements inserted in all the leading eastern dailies.

"For instance," Mr. Nickerson said, "while widespread publicity was given to the so-called attack of pneumonic plague, not a word was mentioned of the fact that the outbreak took fewer lives than the fact that millions of dollars were appropriated to make recurrence of the disease impossible."

Southern California and the western part of the United States are more immune to epidemic and plague than any other sections of the country.

Three Filipinos Accused in Deal to Barter Bride

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
HONOLULU, Nov. 26.—Three Filipinos have been arrested for violating the part of the General District Attorney's order to end the bartering of brides in Hawaii. Acting United States Attorney has a signed receipt showing that Mariano Caliboyot sold his wife to Gregorio Manrobong for $100. The couple, which was witnessed by three witnesses, stated "to see that I did not get this woman by force." Manrobong agreed to "be in jail for fifteen years without investigation" if he reneged on the sale.

SHENSI AND WU FORCES IN COMBAT

Serious Fighting Occurs at Changfu; Powers to Recognize Dictator

BY CHARLES DAILEY
(By cable—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PEKING, Nov. 26.—Serious fighting has occurred at Changfu, Honan Province, 316 miles south of Peking between Shensi troops lately involved in the Peking coup d'etat and independent Wu forces. Each side had 20,000 troops engaged. The casualties are reported severe, but no details have been received.

The powers have virtually agreed to consider the present government as legitimate. The Shensi refused to accept the Foreign Ministry, which will probably remain under the charge of the Vice-minister.

Gen. Tang Yu Hsiang has already announced lecture dates for his tour in the United States. He will probably make the trip under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A.

CHILD DISEASE FEDERAL STUDY

Government Bureau Takes Up Cure of Rickets

Three-fourths of Juveniles Claimed Affected

Most Powerful Curative Agent Discovered

BY FREDERICK J. HASKIN,
ASSOCIATE EDITOR
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—It is reported that about 75 per cent of the children in the United States have rickets or slight or serious cases of the disease.

The statement was made yesterday by Miss Grace Abbott, director of the United States Children's Bureau.

A disease regarding which there is still much to be done, it is known that it affects the bones of young children, and is always lowering the quality of the victim. It is certain that rickets is preventable by simple treatment.

A disease that afflicts somewhere and that is preventable is worthy of attention. The Children's Bureau thinks. The bureau,

Melanochloë Pantched When Huge Monkey Runs With Strange Playmate

BY CARL—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
BERLIN, Nov. 26.—One of the finest monkeys in the Berlin zoo, fearing its mortal foe, has recently been seen providing a playmate. Today the keepers found the melanochloë ape dancing around the porcupine, restored to liver oil, or both. There is no guesswork about this. The facts have been proved and demonstrated beyond doubt. It is interesting to note that children of the race who are fed on fish oil from six months up rarely suffer from rickets, even though they get little sunlight. On the other hand, negro children of the West Indies run about in very little clothing and yet the full benefit of the sun's rays like the Eskimos, they escape rickets.

Cod liver oil is used to treat the disease because it contains quantities of calcium and phosphorus.
These two substances are important part in the forming of bone tissue. It is thought that some vitamin which has not yet been identified is the agent by which the calcium and phosphorus are stored in the bone. At any rate it is certain that if a child's body is not able to assimilate these ingredients from ordinary food, its bones do not develop properly, and the result is the pathetic condition known as rickets.

The special value of sunlight in preventing and curing rickets is said to have been first noted by accident. A bed in a hospital accident in the hospital. Experiments with sunlight were made by Alfred Hess of New York, who found that sunlight administered in proper doses has in itself the power to cure or prevent rickets.

SUN AND FISH OIL

The routine treatment for this common ailment is sunlight or cod everyday health measures. The Indians and Spaniards of Central America made use of the sun's rays to treat rheumatism. But as civilization spread to colder countries the methods of exposing the skin to the sunlight were almost forgotten.

In recent years, scientific knowledge about the chemical, heat, and light properties of sunlight has aroused interest in the effects of sunlight on life. It is definitely known now that rays of the sun contain properties that can be used to destroy certain germs and viruses that cause disease and death.

It is understood that sunlight streaming through window glass loses much of its curative power because the ultra-violet rays, which are one of the most curative components of sunlight, cannot penetrate glass. It has also been found that rays from the early morning sun on a winter day are cold instead of hot. Consequently in the winter months it is, consequently, a light bath only, whereas in the afternoon both light and heat rays influence the patient.

Such knowledge is of great importance in treating different diseases

by light.

SCARS GIVE DEAD TWIN TALE AWAY

Bigamy Prisoner Asserts
Accuser Wed "Brother,
Who Was Killed in War"

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
CAMDEN (N. J.) Nov. 26.—Two gunshots scars on the right leg of John H. Morgan, held for trial on bigamy charges, police said today, upset Morgan's contention that Mrs. Francis McDonald Morgan, one of the two women involved in the case, is the widow of his twin brother, "killed in France."

Morgan's statements regarding his twin brother have been made various, county detective said.
Morgan is said to have told As-istant Prosecutor Verbiest he invented the tale to free himself from charges before the magistrate. Later, however, he is said to have given another version of the story.

Morgan is said to have married
Miss Julie Welsh of Woodstock,
N. Y., under the name of Robert T. Crofton. Morgan says his real name is Robert Morgan Crofton and that of his "twin brother," Charles James Crofton. He gave his home as Nogales, Ariz.

The head office of a large herring packing concern in this city was mystified to get the following telegram from the company's plant on the west coast of Vancouver Island: "Plenty of herring, but they do not like moonshine."

A second telegram had to be sent before it was made plain that no attempt was being made to give the herring any particular boiling brand, but that the herring could not be caught when the bright moon was shining.

Up to the present the herring pack on the west coast of the island has amounted to only $900 a ton, and on the east coast to about 1600 tons. Last year the entire catch amounted to about $5,000 tons.

In one corner she found a quantity

STONE ASKED TO TAKE DRY STAFF

Judges Propose Transfer of Prohibition Unit

Senior Circuit Sees Chance to Help Enforcement

Urges Congress to Provide for Law Libraries

(BY A. F. NIGHTINGALE)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Bodily transfer of the prohibition unit from the Treasury Department to the Department of Justice is among the recommendations adopted by the judicial conference of senior circuit judges. It became known today when Chief Justice Taft, a chairman of the conference addressed the letter to Attorney General Stone transmitting a report in which he embodied the proposal in his annual report to Congress.

The senior circuit judges, familiar with court conditions, recommended that the Federal trial judges take the position that the transfer should be made at once. Basing their recommendation on abundant experience with prosecution arising under the provisions of the Volstead act, the Chief Justice Taft concurring, declare that such a transfer "would make much for effectiveness in enforcing the law."

TO CLEAR DOCKETS

In the statement which was taken to have been submitted to Congress by the judges, it is said that the amount should be expended under the direction of the Attorney-General. In that way, they said, "all the attempted prosecution of trivial, futile and unimportant cases, which now clog the dockets, may be avoided and only those cases taken up and pressed which will result in the principal offend and in the preparation of which District Attorneys will have a personal responsibility."

Renewing their recommendation for the addition of two new circuit judges to the eight existing ones, the district judges in the southern district of New York and one new district of Georgia, the conference at the same time recommended the appointment of a new district Judge in the western district of New York, and an additional district judge for Maryland.

The conference also has recommended that the bankruptcy statute be amended so that all judgments, decrees, orders and proceedings in bankruptcy shall be reviewed by appeal only, and then only when the appeal is speedily taken.

DECISIONS ON BOOKS:

Congress is urged to make adequate appropriation for the upkeep of the libraries of the Federal courts. Decisions and opinions are now frequently postponed, the conference said, while judgments are looked for in books which are necessary to assure correct conclusions. There can be no doubt, the judges asserted, that the lack of needed books hampers and delays the administration of justice in the Federal courts, particularly bad, the conference said, in the second circuit, embracing New York, Connecticut and Vermont, where no law library "worthy of the name" is provided for the Circuit Court of Appeals, while no provision has ever been made for a law library for the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals at Denver.

The President, the Director of the Budget and Congress are urged by the judges to provide for a nine circuit court of appeals with $25,000 annually for the repair of old books and the purchase of new ones, $25,000 annually in addition for the law libraries of the Federal courts. The conference will serve as a preliminary to the fifty-seventh annual convention of the California Fruit Growers and Farmers, which will be held December 10 and 11. Specific problems relating to the agricultural industry in California will be discussed.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) Nov. 26.—A heavier than usual movement of winter wheat to Texas mills during the last ten days led Oklahoma dealers to believe that the grain association's campaign in Texas is being held for spring demands. That the greater part of association wheat stored there remains in the general store, remains in the Oklahoma market recently at 5 cents a bushel over cash export bids. Shippers were made to probably a score of Texas mills. Oklahoma millers bought sparingly of both wheat and corn, and in most instances paid the prices that Texas bids fixed.

"Texas millers undoubtedly have had one of the best export seasons in their history," says an Oklahoma dealer. "They expect a continuation of unusual export business during the next few months, as well as increased domestic business, and they are not permitting wheat stocks to get as low as in ordinary seasons."

GROSBEAK IS WORSHIPED BY INDIANS

Homage, Not Feasting is Order of Thanksgiving for Blackfeet

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The Blackfeet Indians of the Glacier National Park Reservation have their own Thanksgiving season. It is coincident with the time of the year when the Pale Face shows his appreciation of the Great Spirit's bountiful by taking the gobble out of all the turkeys that are picked for the nation's "grateful offering."

The most popular game bird is the symbol of the Red Man's gratitude for being alive. But the Indians pay homage to this bird instead of eating it. They recognize the tiny animal as the Great Medicine of the mountains of the Rocky Mountain region because they swarm to the timbered slopes of the mountains late in November just after the winter has transformed the Indian summer green into a bluish scene and the wolves begin to howl their mournful notes of ravage.

It is then that the pretty little grosbeaks perch upon the highest peaks of the highest mountain trees and sing more merrily than all the rest of the birds do even when they chirp their welcome to the resurrection of vegetation in the springtime.

The Indians, however, in recognition of this most striking exhibition of thanksgiving in all birddom consists of a sort of winter picnic in the woods where they listen philosophically to the joyful singing of these bounds of west-circling grosbeaks still clinging tree to tree in nature's bleak setting of the year.

Fleet to Take Shenandoah on Hawaiian Trip

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Definite announcement that the Shenandoah, the Navy's fighting Zeppelin, would accompany the fleet during its maneuvers in Hawaiian waters next year was made today by Captain of the Fleet, W. C. Wilkes. At the same time he stated that no definite plans had as yet been made for the future use of the Shenandoah and the Los Angeles, although tentative suggestions for a return to the fleet had been made. The mooring ship Patoka will be sent with the fleet for use by the Shenandoah.

PASTOR ASKS ONLY JUSTICE

Husband of Woman in Furnace Death Pleads for Self and Children

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 26.—Justice is all that Rev. C. V. Sheatsley asks as he sits tonight once more in the fatal parsonage of Christ Lutheran Church, where his wife's body was almost consumed by the furnace flames.

The minister tells sometimes firmly, sometimes brokenly, of the horror that was rampant in his saddened and aggrieved home just ten days ago when the stark tragedy was discovered.

Dr. Sheatsley has held steadily to the theory that his wife committed suicide. He says now that still seems the only explanation of the tragedy, but that he means finally to leave the possibility that his wife had been murdered.

"I would far rather believe that my wife was murdered and foully murdered than believe that she took her own life. I have done everything I know of to help clear it up."

The preacher says he feels that many of the insinuations that have been spread about him have been given him simply because he is a minister of the gospel, because of his position.

"There is a certain element of the public," he says, "which seems to desire in general something to do with me in general, something to do with me personally. I think perhaps that fact is responsible for the insinuations that have been made."

CHILDREN BROUGHT

Before newspaper men left, Dr. Sheatsley brought in his two boys, Milton, 20 years of age, and Clarence, 17. The two little girls, Elizabeth, 14, and Alice, 10, sat in another room.

"Just want you to see what sort of boys my boys are," he said. Both boys are students at Capital University in the suburb of Berlin.

The parsonage tonight is under guard of six of Milton's fellows on the eleven. All are husky and formidable and no one who has not some good reason is allowed on the premises.

Kirk has officially ordered that no one be allowed there.

Tremors of Popocatapetl and Heavy Smoke Cause
Town to be Deserted

[BY CARLIS—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 26.—The inhabitants of the small town of Tlaxcalan situated on the slopes of the volcano Popocatapetl, known as the "smoking mountain," have fled from their homes owing to the intense smoke emitted from the crater and the intense underground tremors of the mountain which they are convinced foreshadow an eruption.

Recently there has been a constant emission of smoke from the top of the volcano, and though it had been growing, it is now so great that it has been headed by the inhabitants in the vicinity who are accustomed to such manifestations. However, the earth tremors have now persuaded the Indians that a serious upheaval is at hand.

The Indians and Indians are accepted as the best judges of the volcano's activity.

"Some of the rats are as big as a woodcock cat," said President Sloan of the Board of Indian Commissioners. "They are ferocious and appear to be without fear. The other night several of them went for a negro laborer. He dropped his tools and went diving into the river. We took him out, but he quit his job."

Sloan said the problem is serious, and some method of wholesale extermination will have to be decided on if the work is to go on. Dr. Bunnissen pointed out that while his Indians were handicapped for lack of funds in dealing with the situation, the Los Angeles City Council recently appropriated $25,000 for rat extermination in that city.

THREATEN MURDER SUSPECT

Angry Citizens Surround Maine Man Believed to Have Killed Two Nieces

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

MOULTON (Me.) Nov. 26.—Harry Williams, arrested early today after Cynthia and Neota Foster, sisters, 14 and 10 years of age, respectively, had been found murdered in a shanty occupied by Williams at Fosterville, N. E., on the Maine-New Brunswick border, was taken tonight under heavy guard to the York County Jail at Fredericton, N. B.

The authorities believed that at this time might be made to lynch Williams, who had been threatened by an angry crowd today. The girls' nieces, were found last night with their hands tied behind their backs, shot through the head.

Discovery of the double murder was made by Ward Foster, father of the children, when they failed to return to their home. Williams had taken homestead rights to land adjoining Grand Lake and it had been the girls' custom to go to the lake to cook for them. They went to the Williams place as usual, and in the evening when they did not come home, their father went in search of them. He found them arranged tomorrow.

DUTY'S DAUGHTER

We were talking about everything the other day. That is... everything except our neighbors... houses are built so close together these days. Did parents owe more to their children since they brought them here, or did the children owe more to the parents because of the years of helpless infancy... you know how those arguments develop?

"Suppose the child was given away? Where is the obligation? The natural mother or the foster mother?" This from the lady who delights in puzzling questions. She's the wife of a lawyer and has the hypothetical complex.

"I met a girl down in Kentucky," began the lady Isabel in that drawing way that promises a story. "Her's was a case like that. Mother had all but passed away when the baby came; almost helpless for the first year. Farmers and others around her were shocked that she never had the care and darling of indulgent foster parents.

"When we met, I told her how interested I was in what she was doing. I expressed my wonder that she had been able to take hold of such a done-up unit, with all that phase of life. I'll never forget the way her eyes danced and the tilt of laughter in her voice when she said,

"Why, of course I could; it was my job."

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Dear Mrs. E.: The Assistance League, 5604 De Longpre avenue, Hollywood, maintains a woman's exchange; they charge 20 per cent for the exchange of products. There is also a woman's exchange at Washington and Western, and you will find two others listed in the telephone directory, one on West Seventh, the other on Hollywood Boulevard.

Dear Elsie: No, I don't think it's ridiculous for a girl who has been a stenographer to appeal for information. The girl from the office must find the bill quite bewildering. The well-known typewriter agencies maintain employment bureaus where a stenographer may register. Many calls for temporary work are received there, and by the time that a few months you will learn something about the different business districts. You will also make acquaintances, and many times the substitute stenographer becomes permanent. If you don't get something in this, write me again and I'll suggest other avenues that lead to a pay check.

Principals in Boxing Fiasco Will be Tried

Tutty Fulton Said He Was to Take "Flop"

John Law won a clean-cut decision yesterday over the principals in the aromatic happening at the Culver City stadium the 17th inst., when Justice of the Peace Ballard held trial in the Superior Court Fred Fulton and Tony Fuente, boxers, and Jack Reddy and Fred Winsor, their managers.

Justice Ballard directed that a formal commitment should be given naming them all as parties in a conspiracy to violate Section 31 of the Penal Code, the section prohibiting prize fighting. The offense is a high-grade misdemeanor, carrying a maximum sentence of one year in jail. $1,000 fine was levied.

Reddy, while held to answer, gave back his bond of $1,000 and released on his own recognizance, saying that "in the interest of Justice" he did not have to blame than the others. In testimony that Winsor, who managed the affair, had not turned up in the Culver City American Legion hall to appear at $600 which he collected for the defense. Trial Dep. Dist.-Atty. John Pricks asked the court for a commitment charging embezzlement. This was denied.

There was plenty of testimony the "fight" was faked. Four witnesses said that they drew money from Fulton's account that he was to "take a

SEVEN FAVORITES

Although the field is so large that it is difficult to pick a lone outstanding figure, yet sentiment among speed fans has caused little friction. Frank Lockhart, driving an

VISTA DISTRICT BONDS AWARDED

Area North of San Diego to be Reclaimed

California Life Insurance Sales Increase

Electric Corporation Has Gain in Earnings

The Vista Irrigation District has awarded $1,500,000 4 per cent gold bonds to G. H. Mason Co., San Francisco, and Alvin H. Frank & Co., Los Angeles. The Vista Irrigation District, located on the paved inland highway 10 miles from Los Angeles and fifty miles from San Diego county, constitutes the largest single body of irrigated lands in San Diego county. It is entitled to more than half the water supply of Lake Hemet.

Development in the district is advancing rapidly and 15,000 to 17,000 acres in the district proper are already under cultivation. It is expected that this is the only large irrigation system ever to be built in the possibilities the road offers as a western terminus for one of the transcontinental lines. Several lines have been traced back and forth, the San Joaquin and the Tidewater Southern, running from Stockton to Turlock, through the San Joaquin Valley to Los Angeles.

MISSOURI PACIFIC LOOMS
A traffic alliance was effected at a recent conference between the Western Pacific and the Southern Pacific by which the two roads combine their facilities for some distance across Nevada. It is generally contended that there is little likelihood of the two roads making the relationship closer through a corporate combination. Popular belief connects the Missouri Pacific as the logical candidate for the merger in view of its ambitious merger program gradually taking shape.

Through plans already submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission, if completed will outrank the proposed Nickel Plate merger in point of mileage. By means of various merger agreements, the system over 15,000 miles in length, having connections with large ports on the Gulf of Mexico and entrance into the country of Mexico, virtually has been formed. The Nickel Plate line will extend westward to the Pacific.

These bonds are certified as a legal investment for California savings banks, life insurance companies and are eligible to secure public deposit insurance if approved by McLevyne, Millikin, Tuller and MacNeil. According to the announcement of the underwriters, the issue will be offered shortly on an attractive basis of yield.

OCTOBER BEST MONTH

Nearly $2,000,000 in ordinary life insurance was written for every day in October throughout the eleven Western States. Nearly $2,900,000 worth was written daily in the United States, according to figures issued by the Life Insurance Sales Research Bureau of Hartford, Conn.

California wrote $2,900,000 worth during the month, a gain of 10 per cent, as compared with the same month last year. Oregon came in second over the same period with a total of $1,100,000; Washington fell down to $7,000,000, or a loss of 2 per cent from the October, 1923, showing.

California wrote more than $6,000,000 in total for the entire West, which was $6,210,000. Figures for other States were: Montana, $2,812,000; Idaho, $1,36,000; Wyoming, $832,000; Colorado, $1,286,000; New Mexico, $1,20,000; Arizona, $975,000; Nevada, $22,000; Utah, $1,000.

These figures were obtained from statistics furnished by companies which had in force 88 per cent of the total life insurance outstanding in this country on January 1, 1923.

The Life Insurance Sales Research Bureau is of the opinion that general gains in sales throughout the nation coupled with the generally increased business conditions existing in the country indicate that 1924 will be decidedly the biggest year in the history of the business.

With the exception of four states and three in the Rockies, Montana being the only state to show a decided gain in October over September of this year. Actual sales for October were $572,184,000, a 2 per cent gain over October, 1923, the largest October to date.

REPORT SUBMITTED

The Nevada-California Electric Corporation, through Blyth, Willett & Co., reported gross earnings for October, 1924, to be approximately $1,233,904 for the same month last year. Gross earnings for the twelve months ended October 31, 1924, were $4,458,462, an increase of $245,164 over the twelve months prior.

Operating profits after operating and general expenses and taxes, for the same period, were $2,154,727, compared to $2,153,145 for the twelve months ended October 31, 1923, while nonoperating net earnings showed an increase of $82,459.

COTTON LISTLESS ON PREHOLIDAY TRADING

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Spot cotton in New York was limited to 1/4 cent below the local market, and continued today with trifling preholiday business. Little interest was manifested, most of the bigger traders being absent. Leading commission houses held their hands on the goods. There was hardly any change at the close, the market being 1 cent lower to 7 cents higher.

French Bonds Improve

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Bond prices worked moderately higher today, although trading interrupted by preholiday readjustments was tinged with irregularity. Drastic scaling down of subscriptions for the new French loan offered earlier in the day caused some confusion in the bonds in most exchange trading, and the price moved up to a new high level at $4 7-8.

Although profit taking was apparent in many spots throughout the railroad and industrial sectors, bonds upped the average of prices in this group. Demand centered in "Katy" 8s and 6s, Denver and Rio Grande refunding, Frisco, and Colorado and southern refinings. The market for bonds appeared to have overdiscounted solution of the road's refunding problem, and prices receded 1 to 2 points.

Several industrial issues yielded gains, particularly those near the break point after touching a new high level, and fractional losses took place in Wilson & Co., and Eastern Cuba Sugar.

Liberty bonds fell back slightly yesterday, but up to more than 100 cents of their face value. Bankers today announced the purchase of $4,391,000 Wahash Hallway 5 per cent equipment certificates, which have been placed privately, to yield an average of 4 7-8 per cent.

For the past year, the bond market has been dominated by the total sales of each bond. This market is now changing, and it is believed that the closing is awaited when it is determined what bonds are the most wanted when they are the issue of the week.

IN A P. NIGHT WIRE
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Stocks were carried into new high levels when the market closed yesterday on the wake of a strike in the steel shares. Premier industrial resources, overcome by an earthen overrunning of iron, overcame an earthen of industrialists in selling in the market. Total sales of the 8,000,000-share mark seventh time since election day, the market closed at record high levels. The steel industry would be operating at capacity, the cheerful tone of the most trade reviews and further price stimulation the demand for the steel shares, particularly, sold at 111 1/2—the highest price in seven years. London prices, however, to 118 1/4, where a net gain of 5 1/4.

CRUCIBLE LEADS

It was in the steel shares, with a spectacular 1 point in Crucible, about an upturn of prices general list which had declined irregularly in the market. General Steel, Goss, Gwinnett and U. S. Cast Iron were forced to absorb heavy losses of the outset and again subjected to ceiling pressure when yielding 5% to 3 1/4.

Much of other leading industries, however, was well sustained.

HALT ORDER ON PROJECT RESTRAINED

Court Temporarily Stops McLaran Interference in Hetch-Hetchy Water Job

BY A. P. NIAGY WIRE
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—A temporary order restraining acting Mayor Ralph McLaran from partially stopping the work on the Hetch-Hetchy water project which the city is building in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, was issued today by the Superior Court.

McLaran issued the order stopping the work two days ago and it was to have become effective to day. He claimed that there are not sufficient funds in the Hetch-Hetchy project to pay for the work, which is principally in one of the main aqueduct tunnels.

The court's order was issued upon the application of John H. Robertson, a bond broker, who claimed that McLaran's action was unnecessary. It was made returnable on Monday, at which time arguments to make it permanent will be heard.

Laboratory in Rat War to be on East Eighth

The city's war against rats will be directed from headquarters and laboratory to be established at 1915 East Eighth street under plans laid before the City Council by Dr. W. M. Dickie of the State Board of Health, who will be an assistant city health commissioner without salary, in charge of the war to prevent an resurgence of pneumonia and other plagues. The City Council has set aside $250,000 as an initial appropriation for the plague-prevention war, and has authorized the creation of a separate branch of the health department. In Dr. Dickie, with a force of 127 physicians, laboratory assistants, rat catchers and other experts.

Protests against the permanent installation of the laboratory in the Hollywood district, from Scenic avenue to Carmen Place, have been denied by the City Council.

The Hollywood Chamber of Commerce has urged the City Council to withdraw Brea avenue from Hollywood Boulevard to Fountain street.

The permanent improvement of Vermont avenue, between Manchester and Main, can now be ordered by the City Council. Protests against the work were overruled by the City Council.

BRANDEGE DEBTS FAR EXCEED ASSETS

BY EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Debts of Senator Frank Brandege of Connecticut, who committed suicide here October 14, amounted to $150,000, according to a petition for additional letters of administration filed today in the probate court of New London, Ct. The Senator's property here was valued at $20,000, including household effects and four automobiles.

CONSERVATIONISTS TO MEET

BY EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—More public interest in the cause of the United States and better defense for the country against the threat of foreign invasion is to be the slogan of the annual meeting of the American Forestry Association, to be held here on January 22. The Illinois Forest Association will host. The meeting will be one of the most important forestry gatherings of the year, and it is expected to bring together conservationists from all parts of the country.

ESTIMATED EFFECTS

Accurate estimates were given of the extent of the damage to the economic structure of Japan. Americans relying on raw materials from Japan were asked to make no further purchases. Many of the construction materials were investigated. The purchase of great quantities of supplies here was furthered.

The increase in the number of inquiries received from the various industries in this country is held by Dr. Klein to be demonstration of the effectiveness of the bureau, and particular stress is laid upon the expansion of its services to the foodstuffs division to the various branches of agriculture, that raise crops for export. Over 142,000 inquiries on foreign market problems were received by the bureau, co-operatives and dealers in products during the last fiscal year, as compared with less than 29,000 requests for information records for 1921-22.

In addition to thousands of small orders the bureau obtained for American business men, there were individual efforts that brought results that ran into six figures or more.

The Roosevelt office was instrumental in obtaining for an American concern a contract of nearly $15,000,000 for the construction of harbor works, and another occasion helped to swing to completion the construction for foreign exploration entailing the expenditure of $5,000,000 within ten years.

SAVER MERCHANTS MONEY

The intercession of the commercial attaché at Madrid resulted in a saving of $250,000 to an American concern, and the Warsaw office adjusted a $300,000 claim of an American exporter against a Polish textile mill. A leather-belt company in California says it has received $500,000 worth of business as a result of assistance rendered by the bureau. Several pages of press reports of the various departments of this sort.

A feature of the year's work has been the compilation of surveys into conditions surrounding the production and handling under the control of foreign monopolies of some highly important raw materials, such as rubber, tanning materials, nitrates, agricultural products, and sisal, the studies being limited to such products as must be imported into this country in large quantities.

For the first time in the history of government trade statistics, figures were made available showing the export trade of the various States in this country. The figures are very warmly received and will continue to be issued quarterly. Another innovation was the publication of figures on parcel-post exports from this country, which heretofore had generally ignored in the statistics of our shipments abroad and especially significant for the small manufacturer and exporter. Parcel-post exports were valued at $11,000,000 for the year ending June 30, 1923, showing up the publication of all import and export statistics.

When Galli Curci made his debut in London in October, the rush for seats was so great that 55 tickets brought $25.

WIDENING OF SUNSET
BOULEVARD SOUGHT

A petition for the widening of Sunset Boulevard between Normandie Avenue and Laurel Canyon Road, from sixty to seventy feet, was filed yesterday by the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce with the City Council. It is asserted that approximately 80 per cent of the property owners affected signed the petition.

Petitions for the resurfacing and ornamental lighting of Sunset Boulevard were filed some time ago. The paving, it is expected, will be done at the same time the street is widened.

THURSDAY MORNING.

CAMPAIGN FOR CHEST CLOSES*Reminder to Assure Total Appears CertainArmy of 12,000 Collectors of Funds DisbandsCommittee Named to Pick Up Odds and Ends*

With the grand total augmented to $2,452,475 by yesterday's results and the balance to make up the goal assured and forthcoming within the next few days, the organized campaign for funds for the Community Chest came to a close yesterday.

The army of 12,000 workers, who have been on the job for fifteen days, has been disbanded. The collection of odds and ends, which will go on without interruption, will be carried out by a special committee to be named by the executive heads of the Community Chest.

The total sum still outstanding amounts to $23,960 or less than 4 percent of the fund aimed at for the chest, which was $2,522,000. Most of this has already been privately pledged, and added to the remaining subscriptions that are still coming in, the proceeds will ample to carry the chest over the top.

The record of subscriptions at the conclusion of the campaign yesterday's report goes as follows:

Geographic divisions, $1,910,061; establishments division, $390,867; public employees, $45,157; foreign-language division, $15,155; schools, $16,791; Hollywood division, $25,517; San Pedro-Wilmington division, $14,473. The total number of subscribers now stands at 183,000, or more than 23,000 in excess of original estimates.

In a talk at the conclusion of yesterday's meeting, Judge Justice, general chairman of the campaign committee, took occasion to express his own appreciation and that of his associates for the splendid work done by those that had participated by the thousands of men and women who had taken an active part in the drive.

He suggested that no finer exhibition of devotion to a worthy cause had ever been seen in Los Angeles, and added that only through the unflinching efforts of these willing workers had the campaign been brought to a successful conclusion in the face of odds that seemed at times insurmountable.

In commenting on the outcome of the campaign R. W. Pridham, president of the Community Welfare Federation, called attention to the fact that in which the complicated work of keeping track of the subscriptions has been accomplished.

"The auditing, thanks to the conscientious work principally by the banks of the city, is practically completed," said Pridham. "With $1,000,000 in cash on hand we are now in a position to take care immediately of the organization that is in process of being formed to carry them over between now and the first of the year. The others will come in for their return shares, say, January 1.

The first annual contribution will take place on the first of February, in the payment of January

"So far as the money still outstanding is concerned, the work of follow-up promised subscriptions will be carried out with all possible speed. We have already received a good number of returns to the telephone calls sent last Friday, and it is probable that a majority of the recipients will come in with contributions before the spring is concluded. We hope to follow up every single subscriber before we are willing to call it a day."

NOTHING DOING
When the men all talk shop and the women talk shopping there isn't much sport in a bit of eavesdropping.

LEAVING ITALY
Over 250,000 Italians left their home land last year, so it may be seen that other countries are getting more of them than we are.

AGE AND BEAUTY
One of the famous operatic baritones says that no woman is really beautiful until she has gray hair. Isn't it wonderful how the ladies put off being beautiful as long as they can?

THE LATEST STYLE
The head of the Chinese government at this moment has assumed the title of Chief Executive. This carries a tang more suggestive of Wall street than an ancient oriental empire. In a workaday world, however, it is more pertinent and impressive than any king, khan or caliph that could be rung in.

BATTALION OF DEATH
If the Third party organizes it will be on the basis of a forlorn hope and a lost cause. That may sound a trifle heroic, but it isn't. It is something like a suicide club. It will be as useless as an umbrella to an eagle. All just and desirable citizens wish their country well and it is unanimously agreed that it is prospering in a higher degree than it possibly could with any suggested political change.

SANTARY NOTE
A doctor says that handkerchiefs are the most insanitary things his profession has to contend with. If people will persist in wiping their noses they should use squares of cheesecloth, which should pass at once to the incinerator. Yes, that is what this particular physician says, but the stores are going right on with the business of providing handkerchiefs as suitable Christmas gifts for business men, brides and all other humans. People will keep on wearing and carrying handkerchiefs for another season or two at least.

SIDE ISSUES IN ELECTIONS
That mass of character and the principle of American fair play are dominant elements in controlling the franchise of American voters was well exemplified in the recent election. There was wide difference of opinion as to what effect the K.K.K. agitation might have on the general result, but the final returns show that in many instances candidates endorsed by the Klan and candidates openly opposed by the Klan were elected on the same ticket. The Klan carried with it any influence upon the voters it was offset by other voters who stand for the spirit of fairness, the cornerstone upon which our institutions are founded. Side issues apparently cut but an insignificant figure.

WILL IT BE MALE OR FEMALE?
Are we approaching a political evolution that one day will result in political parties Male and Female? Texas and Wyoming elected women Governors, New York a woman Secretary of State and New Jersey a woman Congressman. These were the first women ever elected to the position of Governor in this country, and New York's Secretary of State is the first woman to hold a State office there. The New Jersey Congresswoman, who is a Democrat, was almost said was fittingly elected on a "wet" platform. She is the sixth woman to be sent to Congress, but the first one from the East. Throughout the country there are a considerable number of women in the State Legislatures, having defeated their male opponents. So it is not too much to expect that one of these days the Female party will pull its hat into the ring and make the sea hustles. California women are already seeking a woman candidate for Governor and preparing for a hot fight.

THE WHITE PLAGUE
Just now much attention is being given to Dr. Moelgaard, the Danish scientist, whose discovery of sanocystin, it is claimed, has released another remedy for tuberculosis. Some thirty or more prominent physicians from a dozen different countries are now in Copenhagen getting first-hand information about the new preparation and its use. The discoverer is also receiving hundreds of letters from all parts of the world asking for information concerning the remedy. Dr. Moelgaard has announced his intention to visit the United States in January or February to deliver a series of lectures explanatory of his treatment. Likewise it is his purpose to send to this country a delegation of Danish physicians who are familiar with his formula and its application. Of course, a person who gets plenty of fresh air and exercise and who diets simply is not very likely to be touched by the white plague, but when it once enters the human citadel it is very difficult to expel. Reliable details of the work of Dr. Moelgaard are not immediately at hand, but he is said to have accomplished some unusual cures in advanced cases. America will have a natural interest in anything that promises relief.

WHY WE GIVE THANKS
On this Thanksgiving Day of the year of our Lord 1924 we of the sunny Southland are grateful for many blessings and pleasant conditions not enjoyed by peoples of less favored climes. Had the Pilgrim Fathers, instead of landing on "the stern and rockbound coast" of New England, set their feet on the golden shore of Southern California, they would have felt on their first day of thanksgiving that they had more for which to express their heartfelt gratitude to God than they possibly could have found to enjoy in that land of bleak November, of chilling winds, of frosts and of snows. And the many that have migrated hither from that rigorous clime must be even more thankful for the comforts of this delectable scene than are our own native sons and daughters, many of whom fail to realize what it means to be California-born, though they love the land of their birth and see no good reason to live elsewhere.

Though this year, peculiar in itself, was for a time one of misgiving, because of extremely unusual conditions, mainly those of drought and forest fire—albeit these were conditions which the country east of the Mississippi did not escape—it may be said, with gratitude to the Divine Power, that Southern California, far from suffering anything like a serious setback, has had a year of splendid progress. For the most part the harvest of our orchards and vineyards has been sufficient. If not quite so bountiful as in some recent years; our oil wells have been abundantly productive; our commerce has vastly increased; stately structures have risen in our rapidly-growing cities and thousands upon thousands of new people have made their homes with us, bringing in new wealth which already is increasing in earning power as new industries thrive from month to busy month.

We of this peaceful, happy region are as thankful as are those of other American communities that those party leaders who were inimical to the spirit of our Constitution have been defeated at the polls and that the administrative powers of a wise and constructive leader have been extended for four more years, during which he will have an opportunity to demonstrate to the world his splendid principles and policies. In these are included his ardent desire that this country shall discontinue war mentality and shall lead in all that may tend toward permanent peace. It is his high aim that America shall aid in all that may tend to effect that trans-Atlantic solidarity for which the mothers of men, more than all others, will be truly grateful.

Though fully appreciative of the blessings of our material advancement, we are especially grateful for our cultural progress. That our people have come to a realization of the benefits of spiritual and cultural advancement is seen in their studious efforts for self-improvement, particularly as is witnessed in the spread of the adult education movement. There is a greater demand for the literature of ethics, metaphysics, civics, psychology and general science than ever before. Some of the results of this movement are seen in fine relationships between parent and school-teacher established by the Parent-Teacher Association, the lack of which relationship so long militated against effective scholastic work. This is particularly true of Southern California, where our school structures and systems are the wonder and admiration of the world.

As a result of this general enlightenment there is in America today a far greater percentage of people who are seeing sordid materialism and self-seeking for what they are worth and are putting them in the background. The ideals of democracy are being better understood, and there is a growing desire for their realization. The citizen is shedding the narrow idea that there is virtue in national aloofness. He sees that we must remove European dislike and distrust of Americans by showing that Europe's welfare means something and that we are ready to join in its conferences for world betterment.

It is for the growth and speed of these wholesome sentiments, as well as for our many material blessings, that we acknowledge the hand of Providence in our affairs and feel that we have full cause for gratitude on this day of feasting and thanksgiving.

MENTAL VACUUMS
The General Defense Committee, a radical group with headquarters in San Francisco, is circulating a pamphlet that, for pure, unadulterated viciousness, class braggadocio and envy, is the last word in a world-behind propaganda.

Unfortunately there will be those that read this propaganda that will take it in all seriousness. There are at all times people edge the hand of Providence in our affairs and feel that we have full cause for gratitude on this day of feasting and thanksgiving.

CLASSIC SLANG
Another blow has been struck in defense of slang, through the discovery by some erudite scholars that the expression, "I'll tell the world," did not originate in the twentieth century. It was first spoken by Isabella in "Measure for Measure" and is a sad comment on the lukewarm interest displayed in Shakespeare by the moderns that the phrase was worn threadbare and thrown into the discard before anyone made this bright discovery.

Isabella was a lady who voiced her sentiments forcefully, as instance this first known usage of the well-known piece of slang. Says she, "With outstretched throat I'll tell the world aloud what manner of man thou art." No quibbling there, yet we half the great dramatic as the world's prime user of the English language. One can imagine the scorn and contempt that would be heaped upon a well-bred lady of 1924 who would mutter something to the effect that "With outstretched throat I'll tell the world where you can head in."

The modern girl has been roared in song and story as a sad departure from her gentle feminine forbears, rough in her language and customs. As a matter of fact, she is much choicer in her language than the heroines of bygone days, with the exception of those of the repressed Victorian era. The gentle creatures of Shakespeare always dubbed a spade a spade, and when occasion required could use a pretty string of oaths.

The average mental development of these constant croakers is less than that of a child of 6 years. They howl and they wail and tear their hair all to no purpose. These iconoclasts are unsurpassed for unintelligent and uninteresting activity. Where their brains should be there exists

HER THANKSGIVING

BY A. M. ROW

She came down the elevator from the top of one of the skyscrapers where she had hammered a typewriter, for a meager stipend, through all the morning hours.

She had the face of a Madonna—smiling, happy, gracious—was plainly and modestly clad. She had need it be said, none of the marks of the flapper—the cheap chintz, the too-evident silk stockings, no bobbed hair. She attracted no attention as she seated herself on a bench in Pershing Square and opened her lunch box.

About her were other girls with lunch boxes and some just sitting listlessly in the warm noonday sun dreaming where they might spend Thanksgiving Day; a nurse girl with a baby in a carriage, which she jigged impatiently, uncertain whether or not she would get the holiday; a woman with a 2-year-old child at the end of a string to keep him from wandering away.

A boy in a sailor suit was drowsing in a nearby doorway. The buttery haze of the sun lay over the robes in heavy folds and the salmon entrance door. The heart of madonna—smiling, happy, gracious—was plainly and modestly clad. She had need it be said, none of the marks of the flapper—the cheap chintz, the too-evident silk stockings, no bobbed hair. She attracted no attention as she seated herself on a bench in Pershing Square and opened her lunch box.

The crowds weaving back and forth between the rows of benches paid no attention to any of them. First one and then another walked over and deposited in the huge garbage can the remnants of their lunch.

Our Madonna did as others had done before her, then returned to her place on the bench to enjoy her last few moments of rest and to observe with interest the people about her. She crooked the nose of the child at the end of the string and spoke a friendly word with a girl who sat near her.

At that moment her attention was attracted by the movement of the old man in the threads overcoat. She watched him intently, but made no comment. She saw him approach the big garbage can and turn his back to shield his movements from the nonattentive bench-sitters. She knew he must be pawing over the remnants in the trash and was convinced for what purpose when she saw his hand search furiously the pocket in his long coat. Having satisfied his curiosity, or don't let us say it—he straightened up, gazed with apparent deep interest at the big hotel, the white looking from the corner of his eye to see if he had been observed, and started slowly down the sidewalk.

All this she had noted with tears in her eyes and her face expressive of something that words cannot describe. As she saw him turn to the sidewalk she had herself arisen from the bench and walked without haste, evidently wishing to attract no attention to her movements, so that she would intercept him on the walk. She approached him slowly, like a nymph, and sauntering along the sidewalk.

OLD YET EVER

BY ELLANORE A. TAYLOR
Thanksgiving means, for many women, with gratitude and in sweet reunion. However poor, a new wife, indeed, it is Thanksgiving.

Hither and thither they may have scattered sons and daughters, but they may once more find the bounty of their home and his love.

And in the sunny days of the year, the trees are full of the fragrance of the trees and the vines, and the sun shineth entrance the green hills and green woods.

The heart of madonna—smiling, happy, gracious—was plainly and modestly clad. She had need it be said, none of the marks of the flapper—the cheap chintz, the too-evident silk stockings, no bobbed hair. Returned Home

After a delightful trip through the East, visiting in Washington, D. C., New York and other points of interest on the Atlantic Coast, November gloom may reign without. And as we grasp the hand and look into the eyes of friend and kinship, be this the greeting we give: "Brother, whatever else your homes provide today, please and kindly chide us let us provide things honest in the sight of all men."

Gifts for Her

Perfumes, always gift-worthy, are this season more than ever so, by reason of the handsome receptacles which frame them. Bottles, boxes, containers singularly unique and beautiful are used, many so decorative as to form inexplicably fine additions to the dressing-table. France has sent over many of her most charming perfume creations and our own country is also in line with essences, powders, sachets, most entrancing. Most complimentary are gifts like these, implying as they do a refined and cultured taste in the recipient.

SER JAMES M. BARRIE LIKES
“PETER PAN”

By Grace Kingsley

Sir James M. Barrie has seen the first three reels of the Paramount production of “Peter Pan,” and Herbert Brenon, who is directing, breathes easier. Sir James has been delighted with the picture so far. In fact, the author says that he isn't worrying one bit about his story not being transferred to the screen truly to its original spirit. Especially is Barrie pleased with Betty Bronson in the title role.

Jesus L. Lasky, first vice-president in charge of production for the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, has received a cable from Sir James, expressing delight with all the angles mentioned above.

But “Peter Pan” isn't all that's doing at the Lasky studio, by any means. After a brief holiday, Betty Compson is back to work on a new starring picture called “New Lives for Old,” with Clarence Baddeley directing, and with William MacFayden as her leading man. Other principals are Theodore Kosloff, John Jones, Margaret Seddon, Joseph Dowling, Gall Henry and Helen Dunbar.

Betty Compson's story is a tale of Paris. Her character is in love with the plot, however, about the life of a woman, a famous dancer, who sacrificed love and reputation for the sake of her country.

Henry King leaves Saturday for a short vacation, after which he will come home and start work on “Backcloth and Scarlet,” featuring Alice Terry, according to Robert Kane, who is producing the coming productions made for Paramount.

Geraghty, Jules Furtman and Julie Horne are writing the scenario for the George Gibbs story.

Pete Neary has taken his first distant location trip since coming to America. For scenes in her latest starring picture, “East or West,” which Raoul Walsh produced for Paramount, the star and his company have traveled California coastal liner for a day's run from Los Angeles to San Diego.

She reports that she enjoys her work on the coast immensely. Edmund Lowe, Rockfeller, and Noah Beery, who are featured in the picture, accompanied Miss Neary on her trip.

Zane Grey's story, “The Thunderbolt,” is progressing in the Paramount studio tomorrow. Several important players have already been cast for the picture, including Jack Holt, Lois Wilson, Ned Sparks, Raymond Hatton and Charles Ogle. William K. Howard is directing.

Howard Greer, who designed all the colorful gowns worn by Pola Negri in “Forbidden Paradise,” “Love and Death” and others, as well as the frocks for many other Paramount stars and featured players, has been appointed fashion creator for the entire Paramount West Coast studios.

In order that Greer can do his best time to the creation of the many new and striking fashions required for Paramount pictures, Frank Richardson has been appointed business manager of the wardrobe department.

LEWIS S. STONE TO STAR FOR SEASTROM

Victor Seastrom and Irving G. Thalberg have chosen Lewis Stone to play a featured role in “Kings in Exile,” which is being brought to the screen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. This completes the cast for the Alphonse Daudet story, the scenario of which is written by Agnes Christie.

Stone is also playing one of the chief parts in Robert Leonard's production of “Cheaper by Marry” and will be busily engaged for the Fox production.

DIDN'T LOOK LIKE SISTER

Soldier does one hear of it when a player fails to secure a screen part which he or she has sought diligently to secure. Now comes to light that 13-year-old Winston Miller, brother of the famous Ruth, tried his best to secure the part of his sister's brother in Frank Lloyd's recently completed production, “Judgment.” Winston had played featured roles in four

JIBES AT DRIVING IN DIVORCE SUIT

Brother's Wire Casts Doubt on Prisoner's Strange Tale of Dual Personality

Officials at the County Jail were confronted with a mysterious case of asserted amnesia on the part of one of the prisoners which was further complicated by the receipt of press dispatches from the East from the man's brother.

The man was booked at the jail under the name of Allen Azen, following his arrest two months ago on a charge of forgery. He employed an attorney and is awaiting trial. He exhibited signs of a dual personality which he suffered in one occasion, Mrs. Hadley declared in her complaint set forth.

This was but a manifestation of a consistent attitude toward her driving that has caused her grievous mental anguish and made further life with Hadley impossible. Mrs. Hadley's complaint set forth.

"If you can't drive better I'll catch a street car and ride home," he remarked biting on one occasion, Mrs. Hadley declared in her complaint.

He was brought back to consciousness he denied his name was Azen and wanted to know how he came to be in jail. When the attorney explained it to him, he insisted his name is Laborowitz and the last thing he remembered was that he was consulting a Dr. Segal in Baltimore about feeling nervous and rundown. That was last March, he said.

"I was in the insurance business and making $5000 to $6000 a year," the prisoner said. "I was agent for the Massachusetts Life and also for the Equitable and I was offered a branch managership by the latter company. I was just considering taking it when I went to see the doctor."

Herman Mednickas of 807 Calvert Building, Baltimore, knows all about the man and vouches for him. His mother is Mrs. Max Laborowitz of 1641 North Appleton street, Baltimore. How I got to Los Angeles and got this pickle is more than I can tell you when or how he became arrested.

Azen-Laborowitz denied any recollection of events since last March; did not recall having $119 when he was placed in jail, did not remember hiring Stanley Vitell as his attorney, did not know where or how he became arrested.

"I have to believe it because the jail records say it's so," he said, "but there's nothing in my mind about it."

Despite the fact that he apparently had bad spells of indigestion and this worried him extremely. In fact, he was on the verge of a breakdown four months ago when he left the city. Since then we have heard nothing from him.

The letter written to me and one written to my mother bear the same name of the Los Angeles attorney in Los Angeles, but did not know he was in jail.

I received a letter from a Los Angeles lawyer today asking me for $500 attorney's fees," Louis Laborowitz explained. "I paid no attention to it since I thought he had some scheme to secure money in his lawyer for investigation.

Mr. Laborowitz stated he had placed the matter in the hands of a Los Angeles lawyer for investigation.

Parking will be prohibited from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. in the entire downtown congested district during December, on account of the Christmas shopping rush.

The lifting of the ban on morning parking of vehicles on Third street from Main street to Hill street and on Second street from Hill street to Broadway was recommended yesterday by the Public Safety Committee of the City Council at the request of the Downtown Association and merchants on the streets involved. The committee proposed prohibition of parking on these streets from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. injured their business and was unnecessary from the standpoint of traffic regulation.

CROSS WORD PUZZLE

Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may of course begin both a horizontal and a vertical. The definitions for the correct words to fill are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the form. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form; one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly, it should read both horizontally and vertically with words corresponding to the definitions.
